PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Dear Sir:

I am a specialist in Sino-American relations. My current research project deals with Sino-American confrontation in Africa, scheduled to be finished by the end of this month.

Also, I am in charge of the China part of Michigan State University's non-Western studies program. Instruction is to begin in the spring term.

For purpose of research and teaching, I would like to have ready access to materials emanating from the Department: Daily Report, Foreign Radio Broadcasts; U.S. Consulate, Hongkong, SCMP, SCMM, CURRENT BACKGROUND. I like to be put on your mailing list for the above named publications, particularly the first.

Should the Department find it impossible to send them to me free, please tell me the costs and I will be happy to pay for the privilege. They are invaluable for my own research and teaching. I know Michigan State Library is now receiving copies.

Sincerely yours,

Joseph J. Lee
